The New Brunswick Occurrence Map was shared, this interactive map allows you to click on a specific area to view information on certain occurrence types, in the Municipality of Alma there were 19 occurrences: 1 break in and enter and 18 others.

Councillor MacCallum is to find out what “other” is.

Committee Reports

Mayor Casey reported the following:

Southeast Regional Service Commission: Mayor Casey reported that the next SERSC meeting is June 30th, 2021.

Local Government Reform: Mayor Casey will be attending the Local Governance Reform Regional Engagement Session for stakeholders on June 24th.

Covid update: The Province of NB announced today (June 14) that 74.8% of the population are vaccinated. When 75% of the population receive their vaccine, phase 1 of the green phase will be announced. The second phase of the green phase is scheduled July 1st, as long as case numbers are low.

Councillor Bowron reported the following details:

Fundy National Park:

2021 Launch Date

Fundy National Park’s 2021 summer season will launch on May 21, with Point Wolfe and Lakeview Campgrounds, as well as the swimming pool, opening on June 25.

Pool and Fees

In recent years, Parks Canada has invested more than $3 million into improving and rehabilitating Fundy National Park’s signature pool, including the full replacement of the saltwater pool in 2016-17 and rehabilitation of the pool bathhouse in 2020. In order to ensure these new and improved services are sustainable, the New Brunswick South Field Unit will be re-introducing daily and seasonal pool entrance fees beginning in June 2021.

The following rates will be implemented:

Daily Rates

Adult Single Entry	$6.44
Senior Single Entry	$5.52
Youth Single Entry	$5.06
Family Single Entry	$18.60
Extra Youth Single Entry	$3.01

The rates were determined based on recommendation from the Parks Canada Comparative Pricing Program, using comparative pricing from other Parks Canada sites.

Additionally, they are pleased to be able to offer further discounted seasonal rates that are more comparative to pools in surrounding locations and to benefit local communities and more frequent users:

Seasonal Passes

Adult	$63.21
Senior	$56.16
Youth	$56.16
Family	$182.53

A valid Park Entry pass will continue to be required upon entering Fundy National Park.

Grounds Maintenance

Lawn Mowing

As part of re-vegetation efforts, adjustments will be made to some mowed areas throughout Fundy National Park to allow for trees to grow and to start regenerating naturally, to begin creating privacy rows between sites at Cannontown Campground and to replant where trees have been removed. We will monitor the implementation of these measures and visitor use as we move into the summer season and will adjust these new grounds-care strategies accordingly.

Flower Gardens

Over the past two seasons, visitors at Fundy National Park have been enjoying newly piloted pollinator gardens. These gardens that are located at the Bluff are comprised of self-sustaining native plant species and provide habitat and food sources for at-risk pollinator species such as the yellow-banded bumble bee and the monarch butterfly.

This season, the field unit has experienced supply issues in sourcing annual flowers that previously adorned the beautiful flower beds throughout Fundy National Park. For this reason and in an effort to move towards more sustainable perennial flower beds and pollinator gardens, gradual adjustments are being made to the flower gardens plan.

Gradually, over the next few seasons, visitors will begin noticing a transition where some carefully selected annual flower gardens will be removed or replaced with perennial or a mix of annual and perennial blooms.

Councillor MacCallum reported the following details:

Alma Volunteer Fire Department

The fire chief reports that an air pack and bottle inspection will take place this week and while the inspectors are in the village, they will try to hook up the air compressor that is used to fill the air bottles. Other than that, things have been quiet in Alma for the fire department.

Climate Leadership Course for Elected Officials:

Councillor MacCallum continues to take part in various Zoom meetings conducted by the Climate Caucus (a small non-profit based in Calgary) as her schedule permits. This small group tackles a multitude of issues from climate equity to transportation to sustainable agriculture practices (to name a few) so while a number of the sessions don't particularly relate to issues that Alma faces, it never hurts to have a support group of like-minded elected officials that can be used as a resource. Still of particular interest are the meetings with other small and rural communities who, like us, are trying to tackle major issues with limited financial and human resources.

Alma Rink

It's highly probable that in any municipality in the province (other than Alma) the 64 votes that Amanda Rossiter received would have easily landed her a spot at this council table. We think it's important that we acknowledge and thank her for her candidacy and celebrate her willingness to contribute to her community. It's not an easy thing to do. Amanda's number one election issue was what Council could do to support the families in the village, and that clearly resonated with Amanda's supporters.

To that end, Councillor Bowron and I attended the Alma Recreation Council's annual general meeting on June 3rd. They had a great turnout and elected the following Board:

President: Becky Graham

Vice-President: Dominique Audet

Treasurer: Shawna Butland

Secretary: Paula Akerley

Board members (6): Angela Sullivan, Kelly Edgett, Amanda Rossiter, Alicia O'Hara Sanford, Emily MacGregor Mason, and Nick Bowron.

Business items that were discussed included a summer student hiring update, the knotweed eradication project, funding opportunities, and future fundraisers.

There was a feeling of enthusiastic energy in the room and Council looks forward to and is committed to further developing this relationship.

Website

This project is now fully underway. There are samples of two of the proposed pages (home page and 'plan your trip' page) here for you to take a look at.

From David Taiaroa's initial proposal to Council:

“Throughout the initial design phase, I've kept four key user groups in mind: the village administration, village citizens, village businesses, and travellers. As much as possible we want to satisfy the different needs of each group. Village administration will use the site to keep citizens informed of news and events, promote the village and region, and support local business. At the same time, we want a website which has a good amount of content but requires minimal maintenance. Village citizens want easy access to news, events, and details of council activities. Local businesses will welcome the support and exposure from being highlighted on the village site. Travellers and visitors want information about attractions and accommodation when planning their trip”.

In addition, we have asked for the following features:

- agencies we are a member of are highlighted on the new site
- there will be a Facebook feed from the Village of Alma Facebook page
- there will be a calendar and a news section on the home page
- the Plan Your Trip section will include accommodations, restaurants, and activity-related businesses. This section will be primarily for visitors and will include an image and a business link
- the Local Business section will be an alphabetical, text-based directory of all businesses in the village (similar to what was on our old website)

Businesses will receive a letter this week inviting them to submit the required information.

Other

The provincial online training for new councillors is taking place this month; 6-1/2 hours over 3 days.

Finally, if anyone is looking for a genial and thought-provoking way to spend an hour, I can highly recommend the Sunday evening Tide Church service; held at 6:30pm at the multi-purpose building.
